

Department of Real Estate (DRE) Compliance

Navigating the laws and regulations to obtain and maintain a real estate license in the State of California can be a daunting proposition. Whether you need help with licensing or compliance questions, or assistance responding to a Department of Real Estate Inquiry Letter or Audit Response or the most serious of problems, such as a DRE Accusation, the attorneys at Kimball, Tirey & St. John LLP are able to assist you.

SUMMARY OF SERVICES

We offer a full range of services, including advising and assisting clients with:

- Licensing
 - Saleperson or Broker
 - Individual or Corporation
 - Obtaining original license or Petition to Reinstate
- Compliance
 - Answering your questions and offering guidance as needed
 - Pro-active auditing of your operations to verify compliance
 - Reviewing your documents
 - Assistance before, during, and after a DRE Audit
- Assist with policies and forms
- Discipline
 - Consumer complaint
 - DRE Inquiry or Investigation
 - DRE Accusation

HOW OUR LEGAL REPRESENTATION CAN HELP

Kimball, Tirey & St. John LLP attorneys can assist you in determining:

- Who needs a real estate license
- What is a branch office
- Who can sign a lease
- When is a trust account required and who can be a signer on a trust account
- Whether a practice is in compliance with real estate laws and regulations

We have articles available on various DRE-related issues.

Contact Information

IRVINE

2040 Main Street, Suite 500
Irvine, CA 92614
(949) 476-5585 | (800) 564-6611
Fax: (949) 502-5665

SAN DIEGO

7676 Hazard Center Drive, Suite 900
San Diego, CA 92108
(619) 231-1422 | (800) 574-5587
Fax: (619) 234-7692

www.kts-law.com
